Sick leave will be charged in one tenth (1/10^{th)} of an hour increments and may be used for the following reasons:

A. A personal illness, injury or medical disability that prevents the employee from performing his or her job, or personal medical or dental appointments.

B. Care of family members as required by the Family Care Act, WAC 296-130, including care of a family member for illness, injury, and medical or dental appointments.

C. The Employer may approve sick leave for death of a relative that requires the employee's absence from work. In addition to relatives defined in Article 17.3 D. relatives include foster child, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, first cousin and corresponding relatives of employee's spouse or significant other. A death of any relative that requires the employee's absence from work. Sick leave use for bereavement is limited to five (5) days or as extended by the agency for travel. Relatives are defined for this purpose as spouse, significant other, son, daughter, grandchild, foster child, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparent, parent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, first cousin, brother-in-law, sister-in-law and corresponding relatives of employee's spouse or significant other.

13.3 Use of Compensatory Time or Vacation Leave for Sick Leave Purposes

The Employer may allow an employee who has used all of his or her sick leave to use compensatory time or vacation leave for sick leave purposes.

- 13.4 Restoration of Vacation Leave
 - In the event an employee is injured or becomes ill while on vacation leave, the employee may submit a written request to use sick leave and have the equivalent amount of vacation leave restored. The supervisor may require a written medical certificate.

13.5 Sick Leave Reporting and Verification

An employee must promptly notify his or her supervisor on the first day of sick leave and each day after, unless there is mutual agreement to do otherwise. If the employee is in a position where a relief replacement is necessary, the employee will notify his or her supervisor at least two (2) hours prior to his or her scheduled time to report to work. If the Employer suspects abuse, the Employer may require a written medical certificate for that sick leave absence. An employee returning to work after any sick leave absence may be required to provide written certification from his or her health care provider that the employee is able to return to work and perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation.

13.6 Sick Leave Annual Cash Out

Each January, employees are eligible to receive cash on a one (1) hour for four (4) hours basis for ninety-six (96) hours or less of their accrued sick leave, if:

A. Their sick leave balance at the end of the previous calendar year exceeds four hundred and eighty (480) hours;

B. The converted sick leave hours do not reduce their previous calendar year sick leave balance below four hundred and eighty (480) hours; and

C. They notify their payroll office by January 31st that they would like to convert their sick leave hours earned during the previous calendar year, minus any sick leave hours used during the previous year, to cash.

ARTICLE 14

SHARED LEAVE

14.1 State employees may donate vacation leave, sick leave, or personal holidays to a fellow state employee who has been called to service in the uniformed services or who is suffering from or has a relative or household member suffering from an extraordinary or severe illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which has caused or is likely to cause the employee to take leave without pay or terminate his or her employment. An employee is eligible to request participation in the shared leave program when the employee is able to use accrued vacation leave, sick leave, or a personal holiday. For purposes of the state leave sharing program, the following definitions apply:

A. Employee means any employee who is entitled to accrue sick leave or vacation leave and for whom accurate leave records are maintained.

B. Employee's relative is limited to the employee's spouse, child, stepchild, grandchild, grandparent, or parent.

C. Household members are defined as persons who reside in the same home who have reciprocal duties to and do provide financial support for one another. This term will include foster children and legal wards even if they do not live in the household. The term does not include persons sharing the same general house, when the living style is primarily that of a dormitory or commune.

D. Severe or extraordinary condition is defined as serious or extreme and/or life threatening.

-3

E. Service in the uniformed services means the performance of duty on a voluntary or involuntary basis in a uniformed service under competent authority and includes active duty, active duty for training, initial active duty for training, inactive duty training, full-time national guard duty including state-ordered active duty, and a period for which a person is absent from a position of employment for the purpose of an examination to determine the fitness of the person to perform any such duty.

F. Uniformed services means the armed forces, the army national guard, and the air national guard of any state, territory, commonwealth, possession, or district when engaged in active duty for training, inactive duty training, full-time national guard duty, or state active duty, the commissioned corps of the public health service, the coast guard, and any other category of persons designated by the President of the United States in time of war or national emergency.

14.2 An employee may be eligible to receive shared leave under the following conditions:

A. The employee's agency head determines that the employee meets the criteria described in this Section.

B. For work-related illness or injury, the employee has diligently pursued and been found to be ineligible for benefits under RCW 51.32 if the employee qualifies under Section 14.3.

C. The employee has abided by agency policies regarding the use of sick leave if the employee qualifies under Section 14.3.

- C. The one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hour eligibility requirement noted above does not count paid time off such as time used as vacation leave, sick leave, exchange time, personal holidays, compensatory time off, or shared leave.
- 15.2 The twelve (12) week FMLA leave entitlement is available to the employee, provided that eligibility requirements listed in Section 15.1 are met. The FMLA leave entitlement period will be a rolling twelve (12) month period measured forward from the date an employee begins FMLA leave. Each time an employee takes FMLA leave during the twelve (12) month period, the leave will be subtracted from the twelve (12) weeks of available leave.
- 13 15.3 The Employer will continue the employee's existing employer-paid health 14 insurance benefits during the period of leave covered by FMLA. The employee 15 will be required to pay his or her share of health care premiums.
- 17 The Employer has the authority to designate absences that meet the criteria of the 15.4 18 FMLA. The use of any paid or unpaid leave (excluding compensatory time) for 19 an FMLA-qualifying event will run concurrently with, not in addition to, the use 20 of the FMLA for that event. Employees will be required to exhaust all qualifying 21 paid leave (excluding compensatory time) prior to using any leave without pay, 22 except for FMLA leave for a work-related injury or illness. Leave for a work-23 related injury, covered by workers' compensation or assault benefits, will also not 24 run concurrently with the FMLA.
 - A. Parental leave will be granted to the employee for the purpose of bonding with his or her natural newborn, adoptive or foster child. Parental leave may extend up to six (6) months, including time covered by the FMLA, during the first year after the child's birth or placement. Leave beyond the employment, post-accident, random and reasonable suspicion testing in accordance with the U.S. Department of Transportation Rules, Coast Guard Regulations (46 CFR Part 16) or the Federal Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991. The testing will be conducted in accordance with current agency policy.

B. In addition, employees who perform other safety-sensitive functions are subject to pre-employment, post-accident, post-firearm shooting incidents, and reasonable suspicion testing in accordance with agency policy. For the purposes of this Article, employees who perform other safety-sensitive functions are those issued firearms, licensed emergency medical technicians (EMT) and those licensed health care professionals who prescribe, administer or dispense medications as part of their job duties.

For employees who perform other safety-sensitive functions, a

A. Reasonable suspicion testing for alcohol or controlled substances may be directed by the Employer for any employee when there is reason to suspect that alcohol or controlled substance usage may be adversely affecting the employee's job performance or that the employee may present a danger to the physical safety of the employee or others. Specific objective grounds must be stated in writing that support the reasonable suspicion.

B. Referral

Referral for testing will be made on the basis of specific written objective grounds documented by a supervisor who has attended completed the training on detecting the signs/symptoms of being affected by controlled substances/alcohol.

C. Testing

1. When reasonable suspicion exists, employees must submit to alcohol and/or controlled substance testing when required by the Employer. A refusal to test is considered the same as a positive test. When an employee is referred for testing, he or she will be removed immediately from duty and transported to the collection site. The cost of reasonable suspicion testing, including the employee's salary will be paid by the Employer.

2. Testing will be conducted in such a way to ensure maximum accuracy and reliability by using the techniques, chain of custody procedures, equipment and laboratory facilities, which have been approved by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

All employees notified of a positive controlled substance or alcohol test result may request an independent test of their split sample at the employee's expense. If the test result is negative, the
